Welcome to LaTeX Base, a web-based LaTeX editor with live document preview! Here are some things to try –

- edit the document name above by typing in the input field

- make changes to the body on the left and watch the preview update

- include an image by url like this one

- check the compiler output by clicking the log button

- format a mathematical expression like $\frac{1}{2\pi} \int_{-\infty}^{\infty} e^{-\frac{x^2}{2}} dx$

- download the document as a pdf by selecting Export > Local Filesystem (or by clicking the desktop download button)

- export your work to Dropbox or Google Drive

- import an existing document from your local computer

- try using the vim or emacs keyboard shortcuts
